Don,

I don't know you too well, but from what I do know, you seem to be a real nice guy. It's been an awful lot of fun being in Spanish class with you. I hope that we have several classes together next year.

Keep that sweet smile and I know you'll always succeed. You're a real good athlete and deserve the best of everything. I hope you get what you're looking for out of life.
Lots of luck and success,
Mary Lynn

Don,
I really don't know you too well, but good luck in all you do. God bless you,

Don,
To a real poet,
not really. I have enjoyed(?) knowing you and Spanish class would not be the same without you as ever.

Springfield High School
Battle Creek, Michigan

Foreword . . .

A black and white photograph of a brick wall with the school's name in large, raised letters. The wall is made of dark bricks. The letters are light-colored and three-dimensional. The text is arranged in two lines: 'SPRINGFIELD' on top and 'HIGH SCHOOL' below it. The letters are slightly shadowed, giving them a 3D appearance.

Springfield High School

. . . This has been a year of changes for both Springfield and the ECHO. There have been new teachers, new friends and new challenges for all of us. But intermingled with the new there was still the familiar—the excitement of a game, the spirit of a pep assembly, the anticipation preceding an exam—these things, too, will be remembered.

June brought to close another year at Springfield and another graduation. As the seniors look through this, the 1964 ECHO, may they always remember the classes, sports, meetings, dances, and activities that were a part of their life in high school.

Administration

These are the men who make many important decisions for Springfield as members of the school board. They are from left: Front row—Marvin Ambs, trustee; Lawrence Collins, secretary; Leo C. Boice, president; Guy Chesbro, treasurer; and Robert Thomas, trustee.

Second row—R. Bruce Sellers, Superintendent of Schools; Russell Herr, trustee; James Noble, trustee; and C. H. Miller, principal.

Secretaries

Mrs. Fitch has been a member of our office staff for four years and Mrs. Fricke for six years.

GUIDANCE

The Guidance department in our school covers a variety of areas. The main objective of guidance is to assist students through their high school years. Their problems may be in deciding upon further education, in mapping out a class schedule, or in any personal matter that the student wishes to discuss.

The guidance department took a giant step when our counselors and administration originated a unique summer guidance program. This program was carefully observed by innumerable high schools and several universities. The members of the guidance department are Mr. Pat Egan, Mr. Ed Banfield, and Mr. Don Christensen. Mrs. Barbara Clark works with these gentlemen as their secretary.

Mr. Egan works primarily with juniors and seniors, while Mr. Banfield and Mr. Christensen work with sophomores and freshmen respectively.

MR. GREEN—Band

Music Takes Many Forms . . .

Mrs. Ross, Miss Heim, and Mr. Green are the teachers to whom we look for music. Each has a class every school day for those students who participate in choir, orchestra, or band. They also give much time and effort in directing students who participate in the various musical programs we have throughout the year.

Social Studies is an important part of the academic life of every student at Springfield High. In the picture at the right Mr. Conrad points out a location on the globe as Mr. Vanderveen looks on. Mr. Conrad teaches World and American Histories, and Mr. Vanderveen teaches World History and Sophomore English.

M. J. Savage*

Civics and American History are taught by Miss Savage. These are senior and junior subjects respectively. Miss Savage also teaches Modern Problems in which she tells of the problems that seniors will have to face after graduation. During this course the class takes a trip to the Fort Custer State Home where they see examples of some of the illnesses they have studied in the unit on retardation.

Library

This has been the second year at our school for Mrs. Swinehart, our librarian. At the ending of each year she takes a complete inventory of all the books in the library. She teaches her students the necessary things they must know to become librarians, such as shelving and checking out books. They also gain a knowledge of the Dewey Decimal System and card cataloging.

Business Department

The business section at our school is always expanding. This year we had for a month key punch machines available for the students in Business Machines to work on. The business courses train students to be efficient and competent business people. The classes also help them gain self-confidence and poise to aid them in future years in the office. Many of the students who have taken business classes at Springfield are working in secretarial positions today.

Mr. Nicholson

Mr. Robert Nicholson, who just completed his third year of teaching at this school, teaches shorthand and typing. He also teaches a senior Civics and Modern Problems class. Mr. Nicholson teaches typing to a class of junior high students during the lunch hour.

Miss Christof and Mrs. Rupp

Miss Rose Cristof and Mrs. Barbara Rupp are also business teachers. Miss Cristof teaches typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, and general bookkeeping. Mrs. Rupp teaches business math, merchandising and business machines. She also teaches our only speech class and has a junior high business class.

With the cooperation of Clark Equipment Company, the business department was able to place these four girls on Co-op with Clark as key punch operators. Pausing in their work, Mary Sue Denny, Cathy Cope, Jan Auble, and Sandi Cox smile as R. W. Iveson, Supervisor of Tabulating, looks on.

Miss Lacey*

Miss Lacey is shown here demonstrating a badminton play. She is the girls' physical education teacher, as well as being the GAA advisor.

The boys' physical education teacher is Mr. Stevens (below). He also coaches the varsity football team, the junior varsity basketball team, and the weightlifters.

J E Ryor*

Most students at Springfield know both of our mathematics teachers, Mr. Jim Christensen and Mr. John Ryor. Mr. Christensen teaches Algebra I and II, and geometry. Algebra I and II, geometry, and advanced math are taught by Mr. Ryor, who was also president of the teachers' club for 1963-64.

Art Department

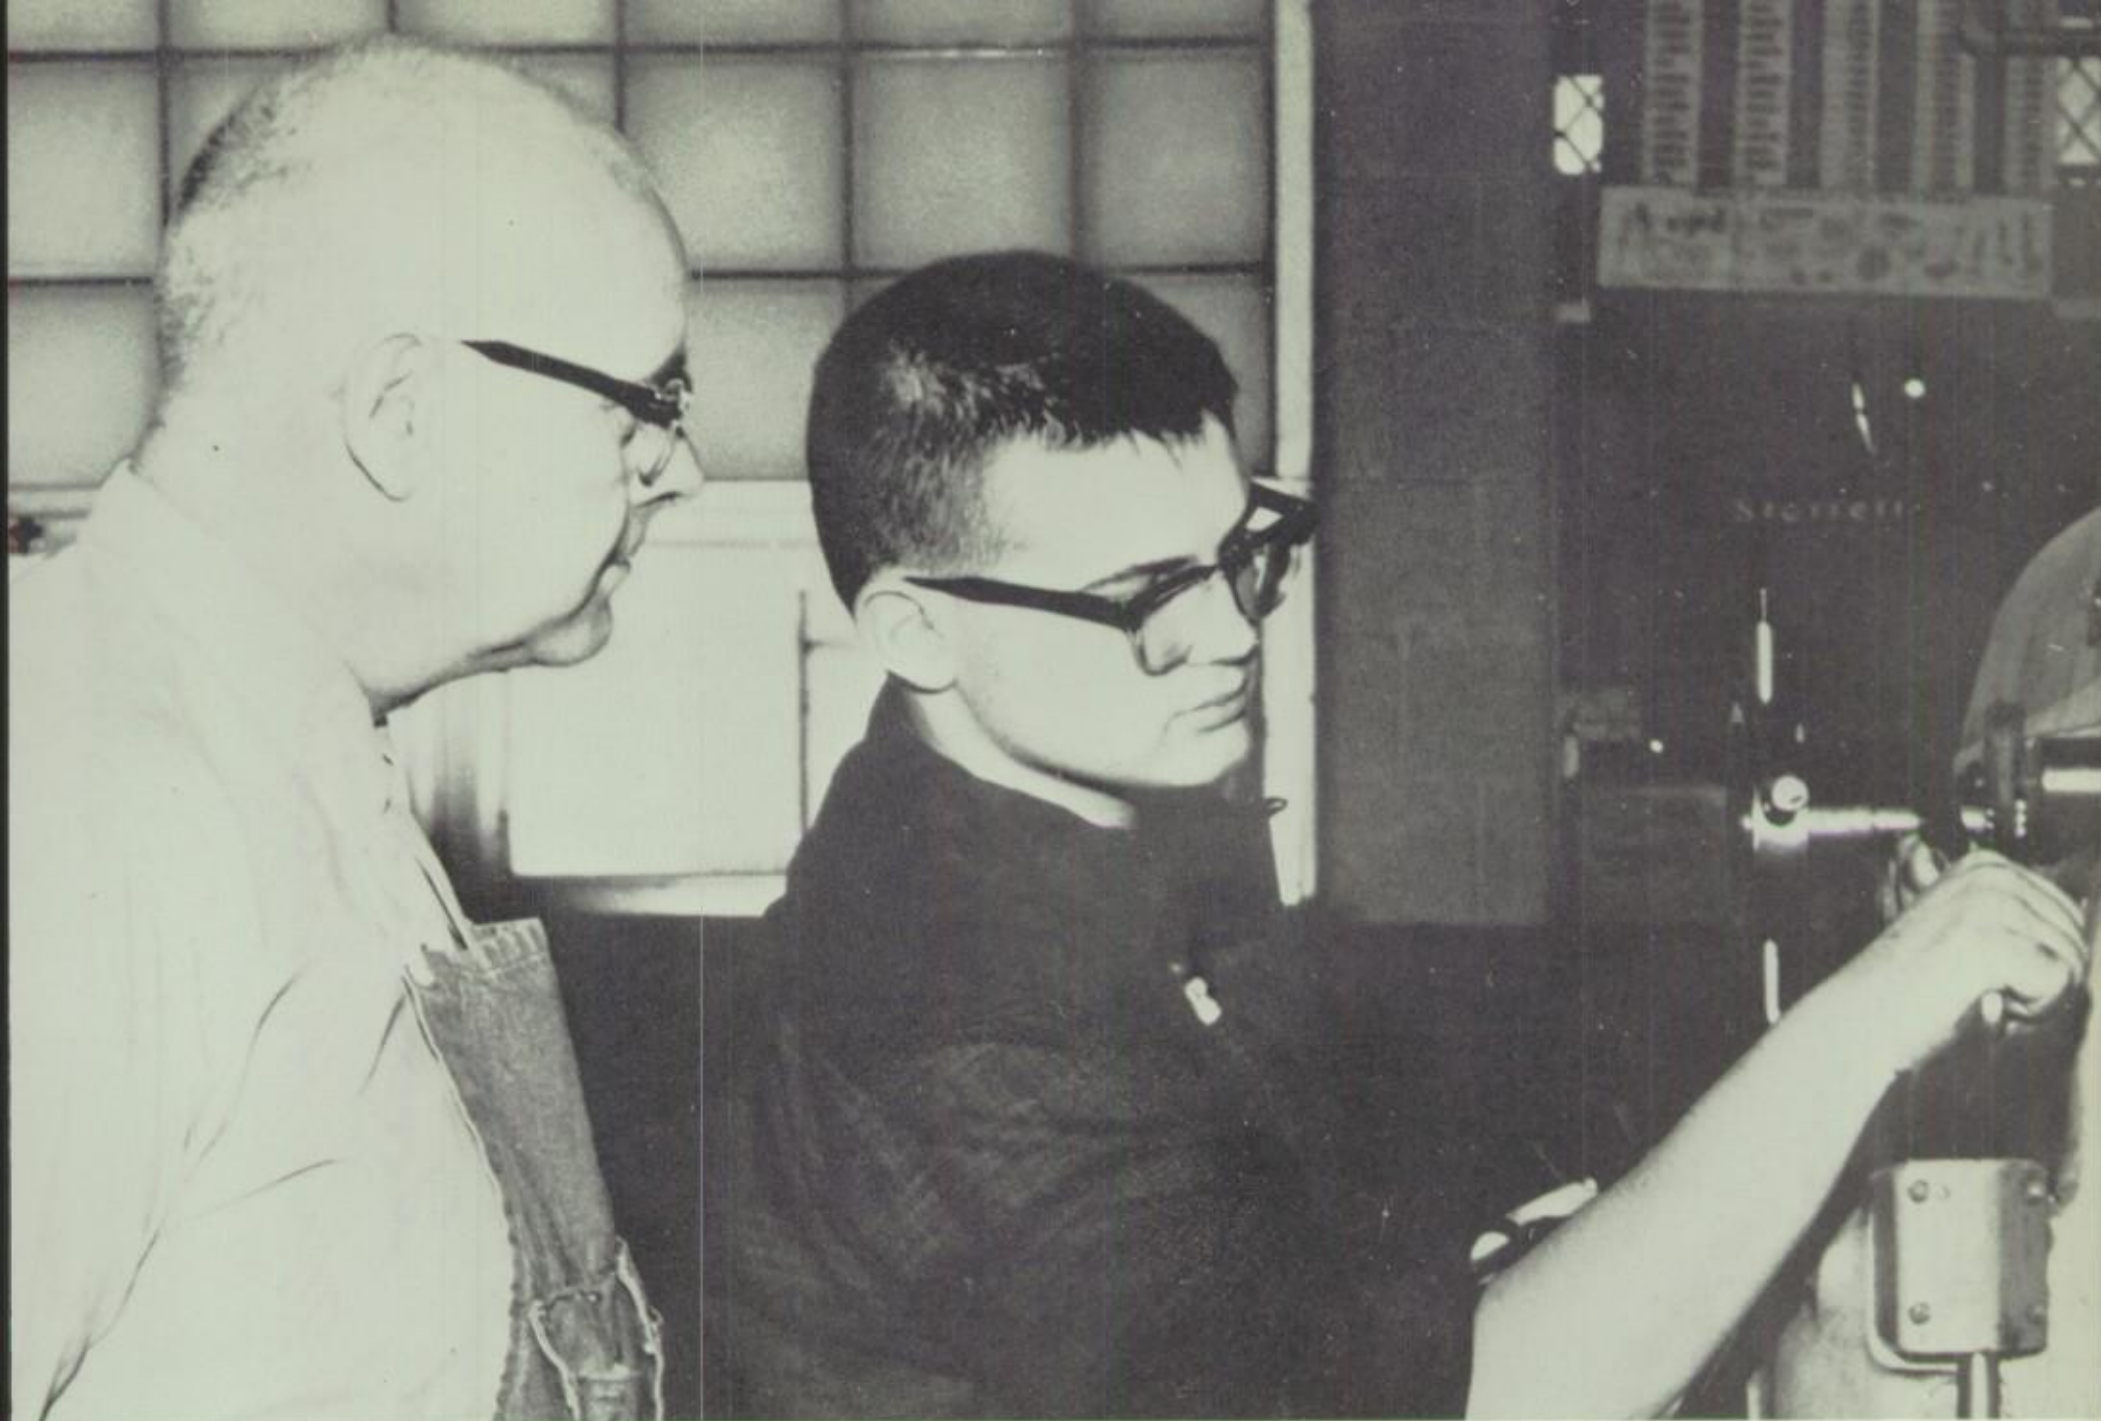

Miss Bauer

Miss Bauer directs the high school art department. After doing her student teaching here she came to take this position. The art department is responsible for some advertising. They also decorate our hall bulletin boards with examples of the different units they become involved in during the year.

Home Economics

The Home Economics Department is handled by Mrs. Miller. She teaches all Home Economic classes, and she has started a new class this year called Family Living. In the Home Economics classes, the students learn the basic fundamentals of keeping their houses in good order. They learn how to sew and cook and keep budgets. In Family Living students learn of the problems that confront them when they are out on their own.

Mr. Ferguson helps a student with some of his work.

Industrial Arts

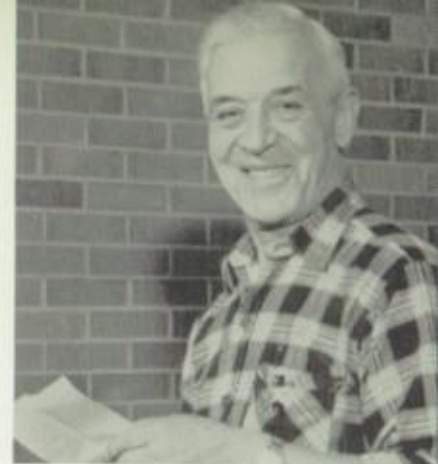

The Industrial Arts Department gives boys a chance to learn and develop skills that will be of use to them later in life.

Offered in this department are classes in woodworking, metalworking, electronics, and mechanical drawing. These classes are taught by Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Holcomb.

DANCES

TUULI MUTTILAINEN

Tuuli visits with Marjut Pyykkö, a Finnish exchange student at Lakeview High School.

Tuuli, a native of Helsinki, Finland, was Springfield's first exchange student. Her presence here broadened our understanding of the Scandanavian countries and their people.

Tuuli came to America in August of 1963 through the efforts of the Student Exchange Fund and the hard work of Miss Rose Cristof and Mr. Jim Christensen. She quickly became accustomed to American speech, habits, and fads and won the hearts of every student at Springfield. We want to wish Tuuli the best of luck back home and we hope she always remembers her year here with us.

Tuuli represented the seniors on the class float during Homecoming.

Here Tuuli and sister Sandy are shown shortly after her arrival in the summer.

Homecoming Festivities

Homecoming has traditionally been one of the big thrills at Springfield, and this year was no exception. The football game . . . the pep assembly . . . the excitement of Jan's face as she received her crown . . . and finally the homecoming dance . . . All of these helped make homecoming 1963 the best ever.

Top

A traditional part of every homecoming at Springfield is the building of floats by each of the four classes. 1st place in the competition was a tie between the junior float, "Temple of Maidens" and the freshman float, "Lollipops to Roses."

Queen Janet Auble, chosen from the four seniors in the Top Ten, is crowned by last year's queen, her sister, Ginny.

Shortly after the queen was announced, Janet and her court were presented with necklaces.

Members of the Top Ten, chosen by each of the four classes, were Carol Wilson, Mary Lynn Pollock, Angie Thomas, Janet Popenhagen, Cathy Cope, Cindy Perez, Patty Frazier, Kathy Cummings, Jan Auble, and Susie Robinson. In the picture Linda Busby takes the place of Patty Frazier who has since moved to Florida.

"Bull In A China Shop"

"Bull in a China Shop," the school play, was a successful production, but the unfortunate death of President Kennedy forced a postponement of the second performance.

The play, a comedy by C. B. Gilford, revolved around the antics of six old ladies, each bent on luring Detective Dennis O'Finn into matrimony by selectively murdering one another.

The Cast:

Miss Hildegard	Donna Ferguson

Misses Elizabeth and Lucy vie for the affections of O'Finn.

Innocent as it seems, this scene depicts the four deadly dames plotting more mayhem over the knitting.

Spinster reporter Jane Rogers moves in for the kill as Kramer looks on, amused by O'Finn's predicament.

"And His Name Shall Be"

Participating in the 1963 Christmas program were the high school choir and orchestra, the junior high choir, and the elementary choirs.

The Christmas story was lived again, as it has been for centuries, by the work and talents of the students and teachers in the music and art departments.

Assemblies play a large role in the life of our high school. At left our varsity cheerleaders lead students in a cheer. Mr. Shoudy, a first-semester student-teacher, gives a pep talk in the picture on the right.

Assemblies

In this scene the students are shown at a pep rally. The cheerleaders appear to be coaxing someone into giving a pep talk.

The members of the pep band give faithfully of their time and energy to furnish us with music for our fight song and Alma Mater.

The yearbook staff, with the guidance of Mr. Diebold, spent many long hours in producing the '64 ECHO.

There were many new changes in the yearbook, partly due to the summer education of Editor Gayle Tatroe, as she took a course in Yearbook Editing at the Communications Arts Institute at Michigan State University.

The staff encountered many problems and obstacles, not the least of which was the proposed name-changing of the yearbook, which caused such a turmoil that interest in the yearbook grew as it never had before.

Under the leadership of Editor Charles Jolley, the newspaper staff publishes the Rampage bi-monthly.

1963-64 has seen a big improvement in the Rampage over past years. The changes include use of a new process of publishing pictures, use of longer paper, and more use of two-column articles.

Others on the staff include Gretchen Fricke, Sheryl Wilson, and Sandy Healy, co-editors; Sharon Huddleston, exchange editor; Mr. Diebold, advisor.

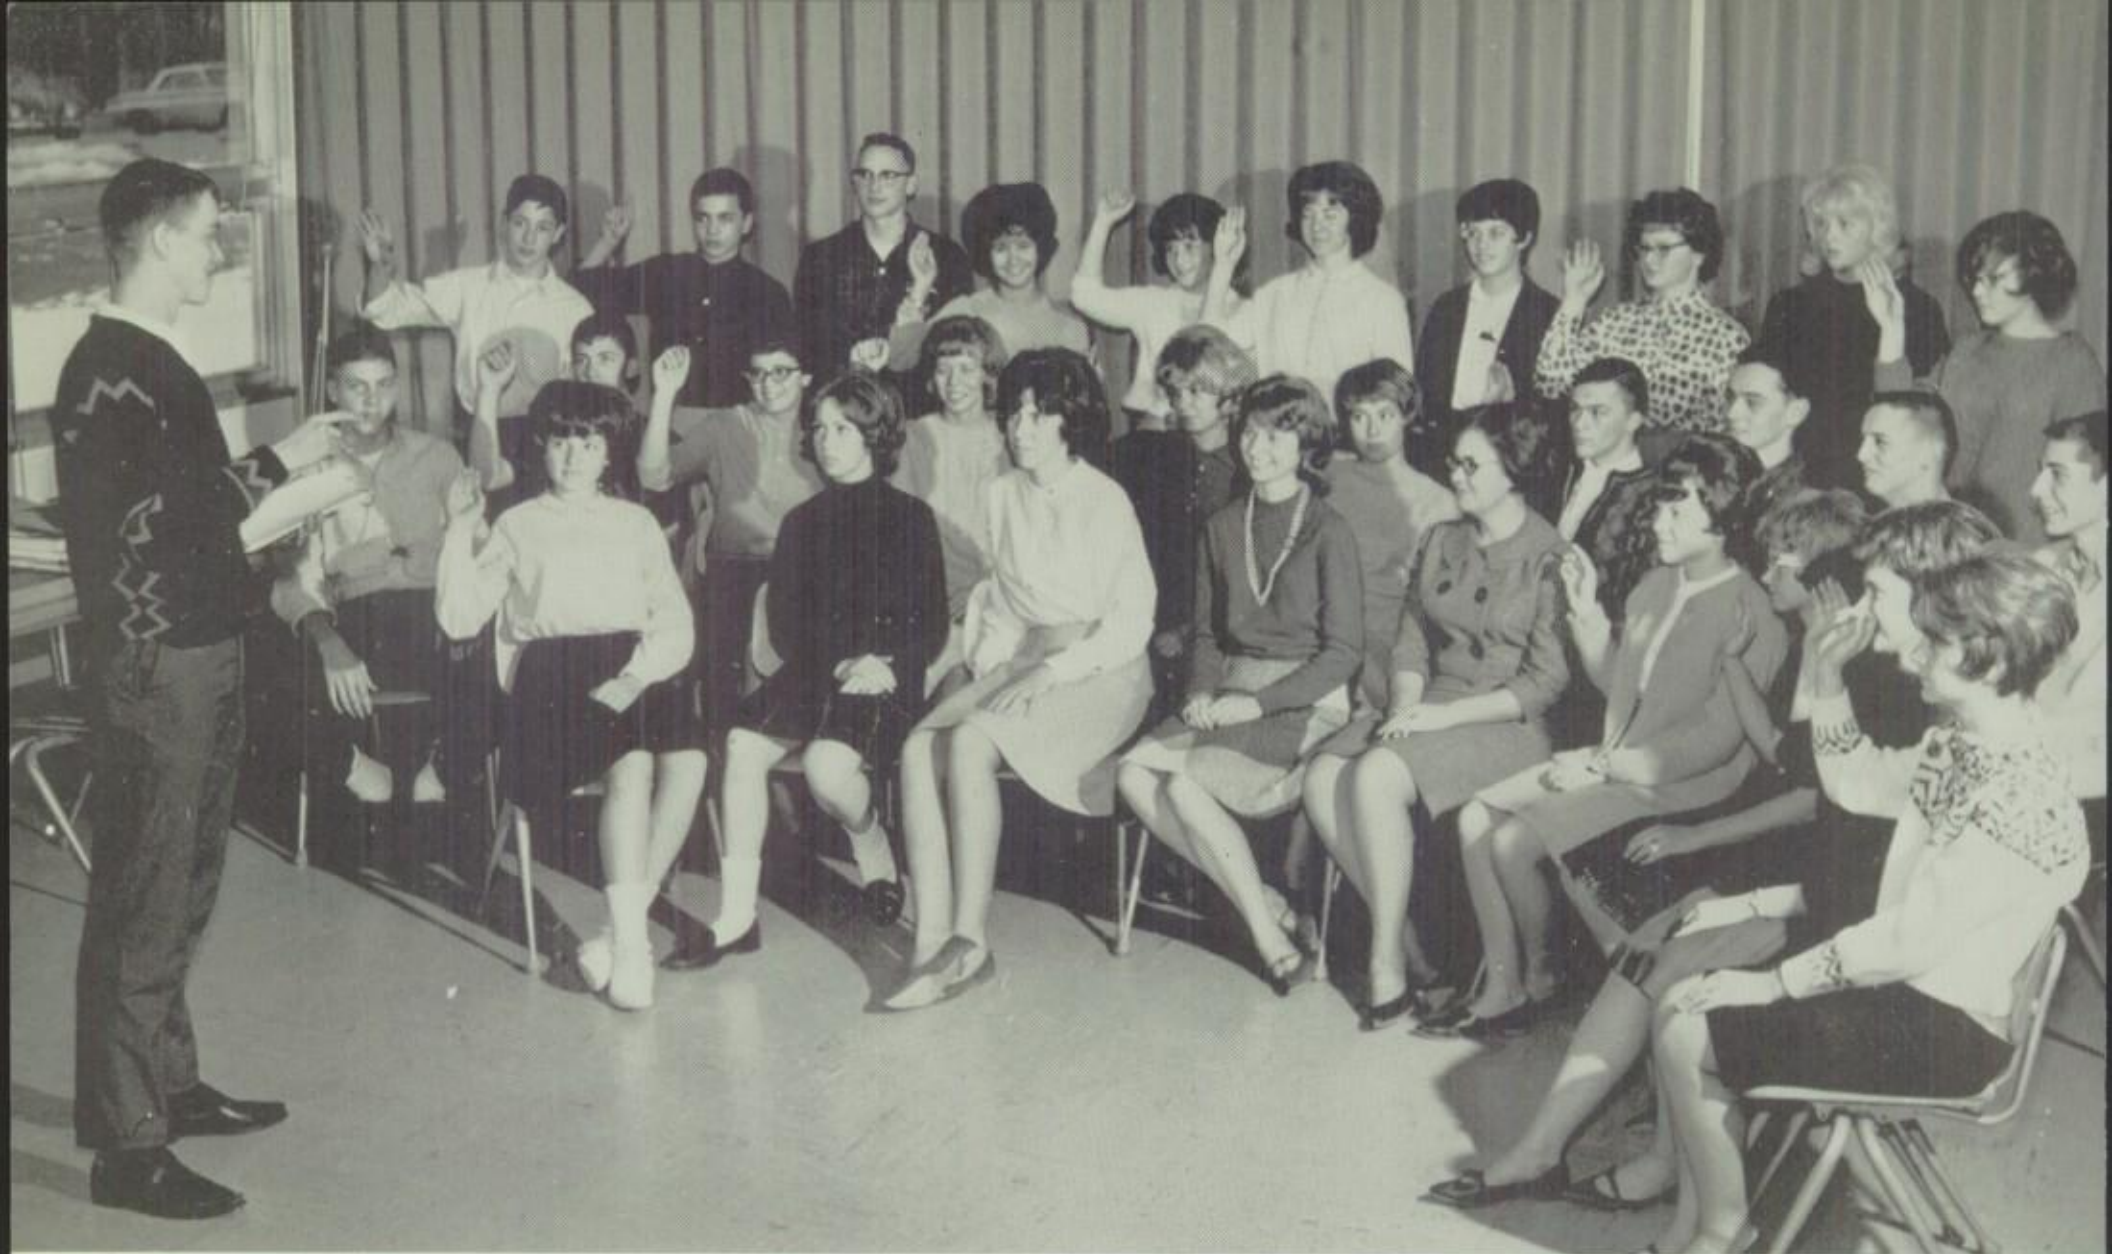

RAMPAGE STAFF

U. N. Club

The purpose of the U.N. Club is to represent a country at the Mock United Nations Organization each year at Hillsdale. This year's country was Iraq. Four committees were selected, each with one or two people, and dealing with a current international problem. This year the officers were: Pres.—Chuck Jolley, Secretary — Rosanne Rocca, and Treasurer — Barb Vice. The other members were Larry Bishop, Dave Allabaugh, Kay Kay Kirby, Susie Halloran, Janice Hoffman, Sandy Baumstark, Carol Roy, Sheryl Wilson, and Barb Gable.

Future Teachers

The members of the FTA, under the guidance of Mr. Egan, are interested in the teaching profession.

Future Homemakers

Future Homemakers learn many necessary skills to use when they become actual homemakers. Here they are shown at one of the many dinners they hold throughout the year. Officers of FHA for the 1963-64 school year are: Sharon Kindy, President; Ruth Ann Kindy, Treasurer; and Shirley Clouse, Secretary.

Future Nurses

The Future Nurses try to learn all they can about the nursing profession. Many of the Future Nurses work as volunteers in the surrounding hospitals, where they get practical experience helping the patients.

Jets Club

The Jets Club, with the guidance of science teacher Mr. Mullins, delves into the mysteries of science. This year the members have succeeded in building a distiller. The club estimates that a similar distiller, if bought retail, would cost several hundred dollars.

Members of the club are Ron Gross, Larry Joy, Carl Bayha, Ted Joy, Sara Davis, Ron Berridge, and Dale Murray.

Stage Crew

The success of any play or musical at Springfield depends on the work of our stage crew.

The stage crew is responsible for the building of sets, lighting of the stage, and special lighting effects.

Members of the crew are Andy Peck, Ed Markham, Mark Harter, Bob Wank, Herb Tackett, Steve Latta, Mike Rawson, and Brian McIntire.

Art Club

Art Club is an organization that allows creative students taking art to exercise their talents more fully. Here the members meet with their advisor, Miss Bauer. The officers are Betty Wilson, President; Mike Wigent, Vice-President; Jim Walker, Treasurer; Linda Amick, Secretary; and Laurie Spencer, Publicity Chairman. They usually have a business meeting and workshop on Tuesday evenings.

Spanish Club

Elizabeth Ortega, our exchange student from Mexico, was here for about two months this winter. She is shown speaking with the Spanish Club.

The Spanish Club was responsible for dances during the year. For Elizabeth Ortega, they sponsored a pinata party to make her feel more at home, and they also bought her a locket and chain. The club was invited to a Spanish dinner at Lakeview School, where they listened to speakers from various areas. As a finale for the year, the Spanish Club had a Mexican dinner at a Spanish restaurant in Battle Creek.

The officers of the club are Gretchen Fricke, President; Judy Yarnall, Vice-President; and Patty Moss, Secretary-Treasurer.

During the year, the orchestra and band put on many performances in the form of assemblies and night programs. The orchestra is under the direction of Mrs. Ross, and the band, Mr. Green.

The band, throughout the year, takes various forms. In the fall, they are a marching band; and in the winter and spring, they become a pep and concert band. Each year the band competes with other bands of its class in a festival, in which they are entered under a march, a concert piece, and sight reading. Members of the band may also enter the solo and ensemble competition.

The orchestra is a relatively new group here. This has been its third year at Springfield. The orchestra consists of a string section, and, of course, the brass. Before Christmas vacation, they put on an assembly to put us in the Christmas mood by playing carols and traditional Christmas songs. Students in the west hall can hear the orchestra practicing every day during third-hour class.

Choir

Choir, Springfield's major choral group, meets each day during fourth hour. This group gives a dance every year and sells candy as money-making projects. The choir director is Miss Heim, and the officers are Kay Relyea, president; Bill Houghtaling, vice-president; Charlotte Riherd, secretary; Dave Jones, treasurer; Angie Thomas and Marty Bradford, librarians.

Springfield's Glee Club is a relatively new organization. This is the second year the Glee Club has participated in the activities of our school. The members are Peggy Baily, Bea Brown, Linda Bunch, Cheryl Drake, Jean Johnson, Patty Pursell, Diane Ward, Sandy Wilson, and Donna Phipps.

This year's varsity '11' won 2, lost 5, and tied 1 under the leadership of coaches Dick Stephens and Jim Conrad. A high point in an otherwise mediocre season was our 27-13 homecoming victory over Climax-Scotts. The Rams were slowed down by a barrage of injuries throughout the season, as many key players were put out of action.

Springfield's reserve team rolled to one of the best seasons in its history. The reserves, under the direction of Coaches Earl Holcomb and Dick Vanderveen finished with a 4-3 record.

Our grapplers did well this season considering that this was the first year for wrestling as a regular sport in our school. Coach Jerry Peterson's team finished with a 3-7 won-lost record. John Hogan, who had a 9-1 individual season record, went on to cop the regional crown in the 180-pound class.

Craig Gallagher, another newcomer, already has set a new pole vaulting record.

Forming the nucleus of our distance team are Ed Wright, Dick Mathiak, Adrian Andre, Greg Frazer, Jim Thomas, Wayne Hooper, Bob Walsh, Jim Chilton, Mike Bird, and Ken Jones.

Also pole vaulting this year is Ed Wright, in his second year of track.

Patty Moss, Sheila Bucklin, Mary Lynn Pollack, and Carol Wilson (in splits) are the four varsity cheerleaders from the junior class. These girls have worked many hours to help promote our school spirit.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Janet Popenhagen and Jan Auble are the varsity cheerleaders from the senior class.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

Since they were chosen at the beginning of basketball season, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders have worked hard at perfecting their cheers. Veteran JV Cheerleaders Carol Ruthruff and Cindy Magee, captain, were joined by Cindy Perez, Susie Sweeney, Emily Plank, and Diane Landis, all freshmen, to make up the squad.

Pep Club

Promoting school spirit for all athletic events is the main job of the Pep Club. To help create school spirit the Pep Club made it challenging by leaving the promotion of spirit up to a different class every week. Results were very good as individual classes decorated the halls, cafeteria, and gym with spirit signs and did skits at pep assemblies. Skits ranged from pep talks by class presidents to a funeral march for the St. Philip Tigers. At the end of the year the officers of the Pep Club chose the most school spirited class of 1963-64 and presented it with a trophy.

Mr. Holcomb served as advisor to the club and is largely responsible for the graveyard. Members of the pep organization were led by President Gayle Tatroe, Vice-President Joyce Little, Secretary Sue Robinson, and Treasurer Rosanne Rocca.

The main events for the G.A.A. are the play-days held at various schools. At the play-day sponsored by Springfield, the girls organized a track meet between Lakeview, Harper Creek, Delton, and Springfield.

In the summer, a week-long camping trip is held for the Springfield G.A.A. members.

Varsity Club

Bob Saxman

Varsity Club members are first row: Don Pifer, Dick Hill, Bob Skoog, Jerry Childers, George Bauer, Dennis Welch, Brian McIntyre, and Chuck Landis. Second row: Richard Mathiak, Mike Bird, Jim Thomas, Dennis Slaughter, Dave Hudson, Mark Abbott, Gary Shelton, and Dave Kennison. Third row: William David Mathiak, Ed Wright, Clarence Boucher, Bob Saxman, Jerry Scarbrough, Dale King, and Adrian Andre.

Varsity Club membership is open to any boy who has earned a varsity letter in sports. Led by President George Bauer, Vice-President Jerry Childers, Secretary Brian McIntyre, and Treasurer Dennis Welch, the club's money-making project was the selling of the Ram Pillows during football and basketball seasons. A high point of the year was the Varsity Club initiation where all new members of the club dressed up like girls for an afternoon and then did a cheer at the pep assembly. The club also donates so much money each year to the filming of the football games.

Luck in the coming years -
Your friend -
Cheryl Sidenstine

Don't forget lots of love from the girls who are glad to hear from you and hope you are well
happy in the future
- Don -

Don, ~~Don~~ Glover
I hope with you
as a track man
we can meet in many good meets.
Mike Bird.
"66",
"84 Boy",

Don,
To a real nice guy
and one of Springfield's best athletes. Best of Luck always.
